JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Lourdes Navarro, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 108 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall participate in a program for gambling, as directed by the Probation Officer, until discharged from the program by the service provider with the approval of the Probation Officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of such program.

7. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential treatment program for co-occurring disorders approved by the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office for treatment of mental health disorders and substance abuse or drug dependency, which may include psychiatric services, counseling, and substance abuse testing. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
8. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
9. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order.
10. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business or profession that bills Medicare or Medi-Cal or any other publicly funded health care benefit program without the express written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such employment, business, or profession. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
11. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing or certification by any local, state, or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
12. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any other financial gains to the Court-ordered financial obligation.
13. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $46,735,400 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim Name	Amount of Loss
Medicare	$16,193,338.00
HRSA	$17,176,139.00
Kaiser	$13,365,923.00

A partial payment of $50,000 shall be paid immediately. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $50 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $150, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 90 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in the judgment.

USA vs. Lourdes NavarroDocket No.: 2:22-cr-00154-SB-2

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participant Imran Shams (Docket No. 2:22CR00154) for the amount of restitution ordered to Medicare. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court has entered a money judgment of forfeiture against the defendant, which is hereby incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Defendant informed of her right to appeal.

On the Government's motion, all remaining counts of the underlying First Superseding Indictment and the underlying Indictment are ordered dismissed.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 p.m. on March 24, 2025. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the First Street U.S. Courthouse 350 W. First Street, Suite 3001, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that defendant be designated to a facility that offers the 500-hour Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP) and has a Satellite Prison Camp.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
